Thoughtfully designed and beautifully crafted, this impressive family home will leave you breathless at every turn. Accompanying the four bedrooms is a study, spacious living areas on both levels, ducted air conditioning and a host of fine inclusions throughout. There is a salt water in-ground pool with solar heating that is surrounded by established gardens, there is garaging for two cars and still a grassed section for the kids to play. With a commanding street presence and peaceful outlook we suggest you book your inspection now!
