We'll let you be the judge of how this home could suit your family's requirements. The floor plan offers a configuration that can be altered depending on your personal situation. With options for up to four bedrooms, there is the scope for two living areas or possibly a combination of both. Timber floors are a visual delight as is the modern kitchen and view from the upstairs balcony. Split system air conditioning controls comfort, there is a built-in robe to the main and the bonus of a second toilet. Positioned in a wonderful part of town this is an opportunity not to be missed.
