Privately positioned off the street is this unassuming brick and tile townhouse that stands independently from the other four dwellings in the complex. The floor plan comprises three bedrooms, there is split system air conditioning and the advantage of a bathroom on both floors. The kitchen has a fresh feel to it; the internal laundry is a bonus as is the single lock up garage. Priced to please it will surely suit those looking to start out or increase their investment portfolio. Call now to book an inspection.
