Larger than it looks from the street, this property offers a host of features that will please you at every turn. The four bedroom floor plan is complimented by two living areas, a formal dining room and there is an ensuite to the main bedroom. Split system air conditioning controls comfort, there is the advantage of an internal laundry and an oversized garage. Entertaining will be a breeze with the large covered timber deck with enough grassed yard for the kids and pets to play. Call now to book an appointment or watch for open home times.
