If first impressions last then you'll never forget this immaculate property. Nestled in a whisper quiet cul-de-sac, this home is beautifully presented from the outside in. Featuring three bedrooms, built-in wardrobes, open plan lounge and dining area with reverse cycle air conditioning. Stunning timber flooring leads to the modern kitchen with a casual meals area overlooking the great size second sunken living area. The floor plan flows to the outdoor undercover entertaining area and private backyard. Add to this the tastefully renovated laundry, single garage with internal access plus a single carport. This comfortable home is located close to schools, shops and local amenities. Be quick to inspect as homes like these rarely last long!
