Nestled in peaceful surroundings, this residence dates back to a time when the character of stone and timber was common place. These building methods may have disappeared in todays construction however the beauty has not been lost in this unique mountains home. Timber windows and French doors frame stunning views of the surrounding grounds, the re furbished kitchen is the centerpiece of the home with additional improvements also present as you roam through the historic home. Gently sloping with sections of cleared space the 2,000+ sqm block also easily accommodates the council approved studio with bathrooms, covered car accommodation and established gardens.
