This is an amazing family home for those looking to renovate. There is some work to be done, but once complete this is a lifetime home. On an impressive 980 sqm, this four bedroom home boasts two large living zones as well as a large backyard with an in ground pool. The detached, fully contained one bedroom studio would be perfect for those with teenage children looking to move out, for use as an office space, art studio or a private guest house.

The new kitchen requires only superficial work (painting and a back splash) to be complete allowing you to add your own personality. The kitchen also includes an induction stove and a Bosch dishwasher. The main bedroom has an ensuite and a walk in robe.
