Often sought and seldom found, this exciting opportunity will please those looking for the traditional quarter acre block. Standing proudly on this enviable parcel of land is this house built to entertain. Whether that's inside with the two over sized living spaces, outside in the covered alfresco area or by the large pool. This versatility is complemented with the ability to be used in any season - rain, hail or shine! Accessible from ground level, there is substantial space that could suit a variety of uses.

- + Large galley kitchen, with a pass through window connecting to the living spaces
- + Stay cosy in winter with combustion fire place
- + Cool off in summer with a large ducted air conditioning & ceiling fans
