2 2 2

Ideally suited for someone wanting to break into the real estate market, this brick veneer residence offers unlimited potential. Situated on approximately a quarter acre parcel of land the home currently consists of two bedrooms. The third bedroom has been converted into a study with a stairwell installed leading down to a second living area. There are currently two bathrooms (one incomplete and needing the finishing touches), polished timber floorboards, gas heating and hot water, modern kitchen and the yard is a blank canvass to create your own garden wonderland. All this is located only minutes from Springwood Aquatic Centre.
