

20 Richards Street Blaxland NSW

4 2 2

Situated in a lovely pocket of Blaxland comes this four bedroom gem. All set on the one level, the home has four bedrooms and two bathrooms with an en-suite to the main. In need of a little cosmetic work, the home has bags of potential. Some added extras that don't usually come up in this price range are ducted air conditioning, oversized single garage, and a lovely undercover deck leading off the back and opening up off the main bedroom. The home is on a large, nearly dead flat block with a leafy outlook. Set in a sought after pocket of Blaxland close to all amenities and within walking distance to children's park this one won't hang around, so call today to book your inspection.
