

20 Hume Road Lapstone NSW

3 1 4

Set on a lovely block only a few moments from the train station comes this charming home. Featuring three good size bedrooms plus study nook, the home has a beautiful warm feel throughout. Polished timber floors compliment the large living area leading off to a good size balcony perfect for entertaining and taking in the distant views. There is also a massive double garage with plenty of under house storage. The location is perfect for raising a family, set amongst the bushland in a popular street centrally located to schools, station and bushwalks. There is also easy access to the highway.
