A delight to inspect, this beautiful mountains home has a great feel as soon as you enter. With 3 bedrooms plus study/fourth bedroom and great living space, the home will provide all the space for a growing family. With a floor plan that focuses largely on entertaining, there is a large deck spilling out off the kitchen/dining at the front of the home, and an oversized undercover deck at the rear that comes complete with outdoor kitchen and Jacuzzi. With an abundance of natural light pouring in from the Easterly aspect and distant city views it really is a home that wants for nothing. Other features include ducted under floor reverse cycle air, renovated en-suite to main, fireplace, large double carport and plenty of storage. Priced to please you will be doing well to find better.
