You will be captured by this home's ambience as soon as you step out of your car. It starts with great street appeal, a gorgeous entry and as you open the front door there is a warm welcoming feel that make a house a home. Offering a flexible floor plan that could consist of 4 bedrooms and a study or 3 bedrooms, a second living area and a study, the choice is yours. Polished timber floors, renovated kitchen and bathroom, and a modern colour scheme throughout. If low maintenance and a contemporary feel is what you are looking for, look no further. Landscaped gardens with ponds and walking paths ...It's different, practical, and has the character one can come to expect in a mountains home.
