Situated at the end of a quiet street, directly opposite bushland is this impressive family home. With space to spare it features four large bedrooms (all with built-ins), three bathrooms including en-suite to the master, and a generous scattering of formal and informal living spaces. A modern kitchen spills out to a wonderful deck which makes the most of the stunning views towards the city and beyond. Split system air controls comfort, whilst the triple garage will more than satisfy the car enthusiast. All of this is located on a private 834m² block and priced to please, so call now to book your private inspection.
