Located only a short stroll from the local shops, and train station this large parcel of land has plenty of recreational potential for the growing family, or for the avid gardener wanting a blank canvas in a central location. The home features four large bedrooms, two living areas, polished timber floors and the inside has just had a fresh coat of paint. The kitchen is central so it makes for a great house to entertain in, with double doors opening onto the rear deck. There is a storage room, a concrete tennis court at the rear of the block and side access to a lock up garage that has seen better days.
