I remember first walking into this house. The walls were dark, there was barely any real light, and the carpet was somewhat lacking.

But we saw the potential.

Little by little we peeled back the layers, and finally we revealed the beauty she is today.

Our girl, she isn't a spring chicken. With 1975 etched into the slab in the master bedroom, with a cute foot print as well, we knew we had a great foundation to work with.
