

85 Eton Road Cambridge Park NSW

3  1  1

1961. 62 years ago this home was bought by the owner and they stayed till now. That shows you just how good the area is.

Now during this time, the house has not been renovated in any way. It is a throw back to yesteryear and is perfect for those who love to renovate and create new memories.

More than likely though, this home may have seen its last days and is great opportunity for a knock down rebuild. Perfect to build a new home in a wonderful neighbourhood and move in.

It is also perfect for updated and potentially adding a granny flat (STCA) or 2 new dwellings (again STCA).
