

11/19 Preston Street Jamisontown NSW

2  1

Currently leased at $190 per week, it's almost cheaper to buy this property than rent it! With rents so high and interest rates so low it simply makes sense so much to buy. This comfortable unit has split system air conditioning, tiled living areas, two bedrooms, internal laundry and a lock up garage all in a security complex so at this price you had better be quick!.
