Sick of small pokey dark houses that smell bad? Well this deceptively large home with all the trimmings will be a good shock to your home buying experience! With a large extension opening up the kitchen and living area to be the entertainment hub of the home you will be imagining where your furniture will fit! As usual with South Penrith there are settlement cracks and a small amount of work to do but the rewards of such a great home at a realistic price will make it more than worth it. Call today for your inspection and don't forget your cheque book!
