

34 Reddan Avenue Penrith NSW

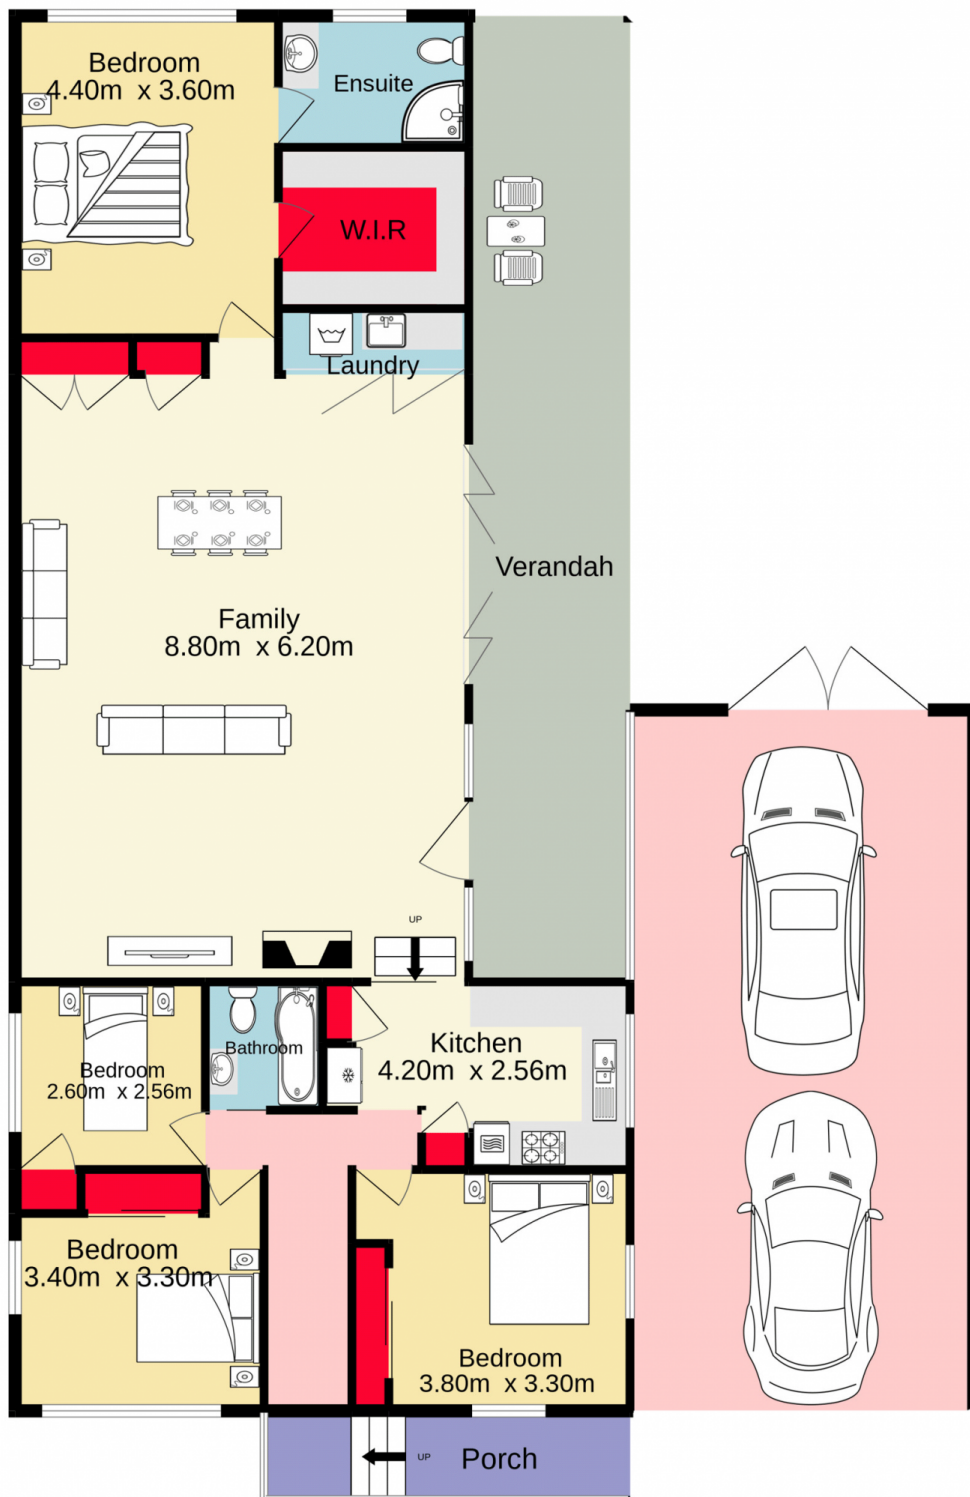

4  2

Tucked away in a little known street is this lovely Penrith cottage. Unassuming from the street yet transformed by its long term owner into a generous four bedroom home. With three bedrooms at the front of the home serviced by the main bathroom. A renovated Tasmanian Oak kitchen is central with granite benchtops and splashback which steps down to the living and dining space. This huge open plan space and needs to be seen to be fully appreciated. Featuring a log fire, air conditioning, a large skylight and timber doors and windows leading onto the undercover deck. Add to this a large master suite at the rear with built in robe and ensuite and you have the perfect family package.
