Miss this opportunity and you will be disappointed. A large open Allworth design has three large bedrooms, the main with ensuite and walk-in robe and built-ins to the others. Large lounge and dining area opens out to the undercover entertaining, be excited as you enter the big kitchen with a dining and family area. The home is immaculate with just nothing to do so be prepared to find other reasons to compromise as this is really something. Located in a quiet street on the high side with double garage, close to schools and shops and with features like split air-conditioning, ceiling fans and quality landscaping, it really is one not to miss so call now!
