Situated in a quality street taking in magnificent views of the Blue Mountains is this wonderful family home. We challenge you to find better value than what is on offer here with five bedrooms, four with built ins, a large study, three living areas, ducted air conditioning upstairs, double garage (single drive through access), a lovely pool and still enough yard for the kids and pets! The real bonus here is that the entire house has been repainted, there is brand new carpet throughout, there is brand new appliances in the kitchen, new light fittings and even two new vanities in the bathrooms. With size, views and almost nothing to do you really must come and view the best value home on the market in Glenmore Park today!
