Situated in the much sought after Orchard Hills Estate you will find this recently updated oasis of contemporary living. On the high side of the street you will find four bedrooms, master with ensuite and his and her robes, sunlit lounge and dining rooms and a massive rumpus room or teenage retreat providing plenty of useable living space. Prepare to be impressed with the gourmet kitchen that screams quality with stainless steel appliances and soft close cabinetry. Outside the ample 841sqm (approximately) block plays hosts to a beautifully private undercover outdoor entertaining area overlooking the refreshing in ground salt water pool. The large workshop and detached double garage provide the perfect balance for the hobbyist or self-employed person looking for extra storage. The balcony offers delightful views towards the Blue Mountains
