If you're an investor or a first home buyer this townhouse may just be the best value property on offer this year. Renovated throughout this fully detached home features four good-sized bedrooms all with built-ins, a double garage with internal access and the main bedroom enjoys a beautiful ensuite. With air-conditioning, alarm, reasonable strata fees at approximately $427 per quarter, new kitchen appliances, new flooring throughout, new blinds, a third toilet, freshly painted and a good size backyard this truly is great value. The property is currently vacant so fast settlements are an option. Don't miss this once off opportunity and book your inspection before its too late.
