All too often your home hunting falls short with something not available in what you inspect. This home package will surprise starting with a large yard and side access. The double garage has an auto door and internal access. The unique entry overlooks a formal lounge and dining area which is a good size. From the kitchen with granite bench tops you overlook both the family area and undercover entertaining. Four good sized bedrooms with built-ins and ensuite and ducted air plus other features make this a must to see - so be surprised and call now for an inspection.
