Up front, up market and uncompromising in quality, this family home comes with bold design, blue-chip extras and brilliant northerly views. Designed for family harmony, with a master-suite at the front of the home, entertaining areas inside and out, this four bedroom and two bathroom home welcomes a media room, open plan living and dining to the rear before spilling out to a fully enclosable outdoor alfresco with bi-fold doors and low maintenance grounds. This near new home has a fantastic location - with the Penrith Golf Course around the corner, parks, schools and shops within minutes and easy access to the Northern Road exit through Bradley Street. This might just be the one you have been waiting for.
