Privately nestled away and secluded from the street, this is a once in a lifetime opportunity to secure one of the largest privately owned parcels in the Mulgoa valley. Held in the same family for over 25 years, this breathtaking 42-hectare (104 acres) estate needs to be seen to be truly appreciated. As you meander up, the driveway guides you to another world of immense natural beauty. With the main residence set back 500 metres from the road, the sense of grandeur and the complete privacy this property offers overwhelms you.
